

COCHIN PORT MARITIME HERITAGE MUSEUM

(Near Sishuvihar Nursery School), North End, Willingdon Island, Cochin-682009

A unique Museum depicting Maritime Heritage of Cochin, evolution of Willingdon Island, etc. where rare photographs and old maritime equipments are on display.

Photographs of construction of Venduruthy Rail- Road bridges Mattanchery bridge and wharves, arrival of first train at Kochi, residence and car of Sir Robert Bristow, reclamation of Ernakulam foreshore, loading of elephant gifted by Chacha Nehru to the children of Russia, Mattanchery shore lined up with boats from Alleppey, etc. and models of Mariners' Clock, Mechanical calculator, Under Water Searching Tool, Steering Unit, etc. are displayed in the Museum. A shop to purchase takeaways is also available.

Entry fee- Rs. 10/ head for Indian nationals.Rs.150 for school educational groups .
USD 5/couple and USD50 for a group exceeding 10 persons

Timing: Weekdays - 11 AM to 6 PM
Wednesday - Holiday
Saturday - 2 PM to 7 PM
Sunday & National Holidays - 4 PM to 7 PM

Tel: 0484 2582199
www.cochinport.gov.in