

Valedictory function and Mass Run Of Swachh Bharath campaign in Cochin Port Trust

The Swachh Bharath campaign conducted in the Cochin Port during 25-9-2014 to 31-10-2014 was concluded with a valedictory function held in Cochin Port Trust today (31-10-2014). Dr KN Raghavan, Commissioner of Customs was the chief guest on the occasion and the function was presided by Shri G Krishnakumar, Dy Chairman,

The mass run conducted in the morning on 31.10.2014 was flagged off by Dr KN Raghavan, Commissioner of Customs and participated by the Port employees, CISF, stake holders, students from the Cochin Port Trust Hospital Nursing School and port users. T-Shirts and caps to propagate Swachh Bharath message were distributed to the participants.

All Stakeholders in the Port system such as Stevedores, PPP operators ,Cargo handling agents, C&F Agents, Resident Association, Chambers and Commerce Trade were also took part in various programmes conducted as part of Swachh Bharath campaign during the last month including painting /drawing competition for the Primary School children at Kendriya Vidyalaya, Cochin Port Trust . An essay writing competition was also conducted among the children of the Ports employees on 29.10.2014. Cash awards were given to the winners by the Commissioner of Customs during the valedictory function.