

Press Release

Suchitva Pakshacharanam activities extend to more areas

As Suchitva Pakshacharanam (Swachhtha Pakhwada) of Cochin Port Trust crossed seven days the efforts put forth by the employees, residents and Port users in making their workplaces and surroundings clean is visible.

Cleaning activities were carried out in Port establishment in Puthuvypeen also. The employees of site offices of Civil Engineering Department, Cochin Port Trust cleaned up the site premises of ongoing project work of Development of Multi User Liquid Terminal at Puthuvypeen and around 10 cubic metre garbage was cleared from the site.

Carriage way and side beams for a length of 400m in Subramanian Road were cleaned by Mechanical Engineering Department and about 40 cubic metre of debris/garbage removed from the Subramanian Road.

Special cleanliness drive was conducted from 2.00 pm to 4.00 pm inside the office buildings, corridors and common areas of all offices under Civil Engineering Department.

Secretary, Cochin Port Trust (Nodal Officer) held awareness programme on importance of clean living involving the students of Amity Global Business School, Kochi.

(22.03.2017)

