2. General conditions of license

2.1. Applicable acts and directives

This license shall be governed by provisions of the Major Port Trusts Act, 1963, Indian Ports Act, 1908 and all directives issued by the Government of India from time to time. It shall be binding upon the licensee to comply with all such directives issued by the Government of India and communicated by the Licensor.

2.2. Site inspection: It would be deemed that prior to submission of bid, the bidder has made a complete and careful study of the existing conditions including but not limited to (a) the site conditions; (b) condition of building/structure (c) condition of the access road & surroundings and has assessed the extent of the work requirements for the proposed activity. Unit-16 falls under flying funnel of Navy and has height restrictions for construction. It is also deemed that they are fully aware of all the applicable laws and applicable permits pertaining to the purpose for which they intent to use the premises. The Port Trust shall not be liable for any mistake or error or neglect by the bidder in respect of the above. The tendered asset is offered on as-is where-is basis. The open space put to tender was licensed whose license period have been expired. The licensee might have made modifications/improvements to the space at their cost, after obtaining approval of the Civil Engg.Dept., CoPT. If the existing licensee happens to be the successful bidder then they are permitted for continued use of space with such modifications/improvements. If the existing licensee is not the successful bidder for the space, then they have to reinstate the space to its original condition and hand over vacant possession of the space to CoPT. The bidder is expected to examine carefully the contents of the bid documents, including but not limited to the terms and conditions in the format of license deed given at Section 7.

2.3. Pre Acceptance letter

On acceptance of bid by Cochin Port Trust, a Pre-acceptance letter will be issued to the successful bidder, for remitting ONRP and security deposit.

The licensee shall execute and get registered a license deed within 30 days from the date of allotment order as per the format given at Section-7. The licensee shall fill their part, sign in all pages with office seal in the format and submit along with tender. Credentials in support of person who is empowered for signing the license deed shall also be submitted. Other documents to be submitted are copy of PAN Card of executants, Copy of GST registration, address proof of the registration of the firm and address proof of executants, copy of Aadhar card of executants, Memorandum and Articles of association of the firm, resolution of the firm authorising their representative to execute license deed. Cochin Port Trust shall be entitled to cancel/terminate the allotment if the licensee does not execute the license deed within 30 days from the date of allotment order. Cost of stamp paper and all cost and expenses for execution of license deed shall be borne by the successful bidder.

2.10. Taking over of property and commencement of license

Licensee should take over the property within 30 days of issue of allotment letter. The licensee is liable to pay monthly license fee from the date of taking over of the property or from date of execution of license deed, whichever is earlier. Failure to take over the licensed property on or before the due date will not entitle the licensee for any remission in the license fee for delayed taking over of property.

2.11. Scope of license

What is tendered and allotted under this tender is only a license to use the property and the licensee does not have right to possess the property to the exclusion of Cochin Port Trust. The property is only temporarily allotted on license basis for the period stated in the final allotment order, starting from the date as stated in section 2.10 of this document. The license is not automatically renewable. Any further extension, if at all, is at the sole discretion of the Port Administration. Allotment of property does not in any manner confer any right whatsoever over continued occupation / stay in the licensed property. Cochin Port Trust reserves the right to terminate the license at any time after giving one month notice for vacating the property.

2.12. License fee payable

License fee for every month, at prevailing SoR for open space with applicable escalation & GST should be paid to the Financial Adviser & Chief Accounts Officer, Cochin Port Trust, on or before 10th day of every month.
